Vaddio Donates Remaining Furniture Inventory to K-12 and Higher Ed Facilities

MINNEAPOLIS, MN (April 24, 2012) – Vaddio, the global leader in robotic PTZ cameras and camera control systems, will donate all remaining furniture to K-12 and higher education facilities beginning April 24th, 2012. The remaining furniture includes a variety of media carts, lecterns, teaching stations and equipment enclosures. Each piece was designed to integrate modern form, function and style for any classroom or training facility. More information on the specific pieces available can be found at <http://www.vaddio.com/category/furniture-systems>.

Shipping is not included. Each campus location is limited to two pieces of furniture, but a waiting list will be available for those who want more than two. Items are available while supplies last and electronics are not included. For more information contact Leanne Waschbusch at (763) 971-4403 or by email at lwaschbusch@vaddio.com.
